LAMKIN TO SPEAK AT BARNARD PICNIC

CELEBRATION TO BE BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER.

PLANS NEAR COMPLETION

Program Includes Speeches, Band Music, Acrobatics, Baseball And Round-Up

The Twenty-seventh Annual Picnic which will be staged in Barnard August 4, 5, and 6, promises to be bigger and better than ever before, says the Barnard Bulletin. Every indication points towards a great lot of fine entertainment, many instructive speeches and a mighty good time for all concerned.

Uel Lamkin, the new president of the State Teachers' College at Maryville will be a speaker one day during the picnic and the Rev. R. E. Snodgrass will speak also. Mr. Snodgrass is a popular speaker at Barnard, having spoken there before.

"Among the free attractions already secured", says the Bulletin, "are the following; a balloon with some wonderful parachute stunts, probably by the same people who entertained us so well last year; slack wire performers and acrobats with new stunts, the Barnard Booster Band; speakers; and a number of other things. Of course, there will be the usual number of toy ballons, tin horns, buzz sticks, canes and the like, and the merry-go-round will go round to the tune of the latest popular rag played by a loud organ. And there will be the usual number of doll racks, lemonade stands and the like.

"Several added things have been arranged for this year. A baseball game will be played each day just over the fence west from the picnic grounds. The diamond is being skinned and put in shape and the team is getting into working order to win the long end of the per cent of the gate receipts. The big Round-Up, which made such a hit with the entire county when it showed at Fillmore July 4th, will be here the last two days and give a two hours exhibition.

"It is probable that the Leonard Players will be here with a new repertoire of dramas and comedies.

"Further announcements will be made next week as definite details will be ready at that time concerning the program for the three days."

GUN CLUB UNABLE TO GET PROFESSIONAL SHOOTERS

Local Marksmen Attend Annual Event at Creston, But Bring Back No Prizes.

Six members of the Gun Club went to Bedford yesterday to attend the seventh annual registered tournament which was held there. Nicholas, from Creston, Iowa, made the highest score when he broke 142 out of 150 targets.

The local club were hopeful that they could get some professional shooters from the meeting at Bedford yesterday to come to Maryville and give an exhibition at the regular weekly meeting of the club tomorrow. They were unable to make these arrangements, because there was only one professional shooter registered at the tournament.

Those who attended the meet at Bedford were: L. A. Conder, Theo. Robinson, Winans, Albert Kuchs, Roy Yeaman, R. R. Souers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hutcheson and duaghter, Myrtie, and son, Clarence, of Parnell were in Maryville shopping this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Campbell and daughter, Miss Fern, and son, Dean of Barnard were Maryville visitors today.

SKIDMORE YOUTH CAN GO TO CAMP

APPLICATION OF ADRIAN C. HOBLITZELL IS APPROVED.

OTHERS STILL WAITING

Missouri Has 192 Already Accepted With 900 on Waiting List—More Applicants Wanted.

Adrian C. Hoblitzell of Skidmore is the latest Nodaway county youth to be notified that his application for admission to the Citizen's Army Training Camp at Camp Pike, Ark., has been accepted. Several other boys have received no notice in regard to their applications.

There have been a total of 3,603 applications received up to July 10 in the Seventh Corps Area, according to Major Fred L. Lemmon, assistant adjutant at Fort Crook headquarters.

The officers desire to continue to receive applications clear through the month of July. Not all of the applicants can be accepted for enrollment this year, on account of the limitation which was placed on the appropriation. It is hoped in future years that Congress will provide larger appropriations so that not less than 100,000 young men can receive the training each year. A large number of applications will bring to bear the pressure needed to secure the necessary appropriation.

The training period at Camp Pike begins August 1 and continues through the month. Kansas has 36 applicants accepted and 263 awaiting approval. Arkansas has 34 accepted and 204 awaiting approval. Missouri leads in both classes with 192 accepted and 900 on the waiting list.

The total number of formal applications for both Camp Pike and Fort Snelling, to July 10, was 3,603. The increase for the period, July 1 to 10, was 1,545. The total number of applications approved is 552.

BOLCKOW—BARNARD DRAINAGE CO., WILL DIG OWN DITCH

Work to Begin Immediately—Two Machines Will Operate—Will Take a Year.

Work on the Barnard-Bolckow Drainage ditch will be begun at once, or as soon as a dragline ditching machine can be transported from Hamburg, Ia., to Bolckow, where the first work will be started. The ditcher is what is known as a dragline type and runs ahead of the ditch it digs on a track laid for the purpose.

The Barnard-Bolckow Drainage Co. will dig its own ditch, merely employing a Mr. Reese to do the work by the cubic yard. Two machines will be used, one of which has been used only a short time, the other being a new machine of the walking type. The Drainage Company will own both machines. The second machine will start at above Rosendale within a month or so, or as soon as it can be shipped and erected. The first machine on the job will begin near the Bolekow bridge. Both machines will work north.

It is thought by those having the matter in charge that the ditch will be finished in May, 1922, provided there is an open winter and not too much hard freezing weather. According to the board of supervisors, the arrangement made is very advantageous to the Drainage District both in getting the work done quickly and in lower costs of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Day of Parnell were visitors here today.

CHAUTAUQUA NOW THREE WEEKS OFF

SEVEN DAYS PROGRAM IS BETTER THAN EVER.

"JOY NITE"A FEATURE

Country's Best Readers, Singers and Orators to be Here—and "Broadway Jones."

Only a few more days and the big brown tent will go up and the 1921 Chautauqua will be on. The dates this year are August 5 to 11.

Advance announcements would indicate that the program bears out Mr. Vawter's contention that each year's program is "bigger and better" than the season before.

Carmen Pascova, brilliant prima donna of the Chicago Grand Opera Association is to be one of the headliners in high class music. Quin O'Brien of Chicago, Governor Brough, Granville Jones, Robert MacGowan, David Vaughan are some of the "Big brains" who will discuss current problems. "Farmer" Burns, the wrestling champion has a lecture demonstration which is a feature.

The big New York comedy, "Broadway Jones," with William Keighley is looked forward to by the hundreds who laughed at "Nothing But the Truth" last season.

Bertha Kunz Baker of New York who is considered the greatest interpretive recitalist in America will portray a modern play, subject to be announced later.

"The Gondoliers," a magnificient musical production under the direction of Arthur Dunham of Chicago, with elaborate scenic effects, is expected to reach the zenith of musical excellence.

More emphasis has been placed on "Joy Nite" than ever before, three premier laugh makers being obtained as a "starter" to limber up the laughs for the Jess Pugh Company, who is to hold sway from "then on." Jess is an attraction in himself and with Al Baker, ventriloquist, Youna the juggler, and Billy Proyr, black face comedian on the same bill, it looks certainly like a final "blaze of glory."

Then there is the popular Weatherwax Brothers Quartette, the Orchestral Trouadours with George Tack, the Rich-Werno Entertainers, Florence Hardeman, violinist and Stweart Wille, pianist, Harry Webb Farrington, the poet and Richard S. Martin of Chicago.

A special Junior Chautauqua feature, "Junior Town," a plan which has captured eastern Chautauqua circuits for the past five years, is being installed this year.

COLDEN IS NEW PRESIDENT SAN PEDRO, CAL., C. OF C.

Inaugurates New Policy, Giving Him Complete Charge of All Business.

C. J. Colden, former editor of the Nodaway Forum and president of the Board of Regents when the State Teachers College was built, was unanimously elected president of the San Pedro, Cal. Chamber of Commerce recently.

Immediately following his election as president, Mr. Colden inaugurated a new policy whereby practically the entire affairs of the chamber of commerce will come under his control. The new plan took the administrative affairs entirely out of the hands of the secretary and put them in the hands of the committees made up of members.

In speaking of Mr. Colden's ability, the San Pedro Daily Pilot said, "The new president is splendidly equipped for the position, and he will have the enthusiastic support of the entire board, as well as the membership."

The policy adopted is the result of recommendations made by the American City Bureau that all standing committees on questions of policy be abolished and the work placed upon special committees made up of those who have particular interests in each question as it comes up. This plan has proven to be remarkably successful all over America in developing good workers and keeping the organization alive.

CLOTHIERS LOSE TO PRINTERS, 6-3

FIRST GAME IN TWILIGHT LEAGUE IS HOTLY CONTESTED

MAPEL A NICK ALTROCK

Lanky Reporter Convulses Spectators With Baserunning Antics—Interest Spreads.

More spectator thrills per minute were provided at the Fairgrounds last night in the first game of the Twilight League than in the best played Big League contests with all their highly paid performers. The amusemen was furnished by the Printers and the Clothiers, the former wining 6-3, in five innings.

The self-acknowledged star of the game was William Mapel, shortstop for the Scribes, whose frenzied baserunning convulsed the spectators with laughter. By cutting all the bases by some ten feet in the third inning, he stretched a legitimate two-base blow into a home run, but was called out at third when the ball was returned there. The lanky reporter again planted the ball in left field when he came to bat in the fifth inning. In a dense cloud of dust, he slid safely into third, emerging with trousers torn and eyes, ears and mouth filled with earth. This time he had stepped squarely on all the bags and was declared safe by the umpire, while a happy grin made creases in his dust-caked countenance.

The Printers scored first in their half of the opening inning, when Cummings hit safely, stole second and came home on passed balls. The side wa sretired on three strike-outs by Winans who sells caps for 10 cents at the Woolworth Store and was therefore classified as a clothier. The Printers scored one run in each of the five innings, except in the second, when they doubled their quots. Van Cleve made two of the tallies and Cummings, Selecman, Mapel and Gile one each.

The Clothiers made all their runs in the third frame, when bunched hits and errors proved the undoing of Parsons, whose star twirling held them helpless in other innings. Three runs behind in the final time at bat, the Clothing men made a gallant effort to tie the score, but Bartholomew was called out at the plate adn Miller was caught at third.

Martin Lewis was the fielding star for the Clothiers and was also credited with a nice two-base hit. Frank Revies received the offerings of Winans in good shape.

The line-up swere as follows:

Printers. Selecman, c; Parsons, p; Cummings, 1b; Van Cleve, 2b; Mapel ss, Hornbuckle, 3 b; Gile, rf; Younger, cf; Dunn, lf.

Clothiers. Reavis, c; Winans, p; Bartholomew, 1b; Cohn, 2 b; Lewis, ss; Price 3b; Woods, rf; Miller, cf; Kelley, lf;

The umpiring job was divided among Charles Still, Henry Buhler, Fancis Bluel and Paul (Shike) Smith.

A good crowd of rooters was present. They seemed to be neutral, applauding plays on their merits. No admission was charged, the players themselves chipping in to purchase the baseball.

The next opponents for the Printers will probaby be chosen from the bankers, professional men, cigar makers, barbers, postal employers, musicians, or the Townsend Company. The last two named are the latest to enter the contest. The musicians team will be picked from the Members of the Maryville Concert Band and the grocers from the wholesale and retail Townend stores.

DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE COMPLICATED BY JAPAN

Orientals Insist They Be Received as Equals—Means Immigration Must be Discussed.

Tokio, July 15.—It was learned from an authoritative source yesterday that the Japanese first note in reply to President Harding's invitation to join the disarmament conference while accepting, will be in the nature of inquiry as to whether Japan, in entering the conference, will be considered as equal to other nations, was taken to indicate that the question of immigration will come to the fore front in the conference.

London, July 15.—In reply to the question as to whether he will head the British delegation to President Harding's disarmament conference, Premier Lloyd George announced to the House of Commons yesterday afternoon that British arrangements meeting had not yet been made.

JAPANESE MOVIES LAST ALL EVENING

VISITING MISSIONARY TALKS ON EASTERN CUSTOMS.

LESS WAR TALK THERE

American People Often Fail to Understand She Says—Girls Get Little Education.

"Americans complain of heavy taxes but they are nothing to compare with the taxes in Japan," says Miss Lena Daugherty, a member of the Presbyterian Missionary Board, who has spent the last five years as an instructor in the Girls' High School at Tokio.

Asked what she thought of the political conditions between Japan and America, Miss Daugherty said that she thought the talk of war between the two countries was much greater in the United States than it was in Japan, although she would rather not make any public statement of her opinions because of the nature of her work.

The stand which Japan has taken toward President Harding's armament conference has come up since Miss Daugherty came to America in January and she was not familiar with the attitude that the people there take.

However, she thought the chief reason that the United States misunderstands the people of Japan is that the problems which America has to meet in this country are much different than the ones there, because of the different class of people that we deal with. Quoting the members of the board of missions, she said, "No wonder we missionaries cry when we see the immigrants, and there isn't any wonder that America doesn't like us. The immigrants represent the lower class of people, and not the middle class or the nobility."

Miss Daugherty said that she often went to moving picture shows in Japan, although they are much different there than here. The chief reason that she did not go oftener, she said, was because they were so long. They begin there about 6:15 o'clock and last until about 11 or 11:30 o'clock in the evening. The pictures which are shown are American productions, running one main attractions, a comedy and sometimes a Pathe weekly. They never mix vaudeville with their pictures.

Theatres hold a high place in the hearts of the Japanese people and there are some very expensive theatres in Tokio. About 5 o'clock they serve the evening meal and the guests eat and enjoy the performance. They usually charge the equivalent of $2.50 in American money.

Miss Daugherty is in Maryville to be with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Kuhn, who is ill at the St. Francis Hospital.

Wheat wagons have been rolling into Pickering pretty lively for over a week, threshing this year being exceptionally early. The stores here keep open nights and there are more people in our little village nights than in many of the larger places where the stores close at 6 or 7 o'clock. But it is not pleasant for the clerks or proprietors either to have to stick around until 10 and 11 o'clock and sometimes until midnight or after.

Another big double header ball game will be played next Sunday afternoon on the Tilman Hensley ball grounds, 4 miles northeast of Hopkins on the Bedford road, beginning promptly at one o'clock. These games are played by teams composed of members of the different locals of the Farmers Union and the games next Sunday afternoon will be between the Hazel Dell "Invincibles" vs. Unity "Bear Cats" and Prairie Flower "Giants" vs. Valley "Tigers". Some of the teams will have some different players next Sunday and two fast games are promised those who care to witness them. There will be a stand on the ground with cold drinks and there is plenty of shade to run your car in. Come out and enjoy the afternoon with the boys. The admission is free.

China Wilson received a telegram Tuesday announcing the death of Mrs. Lloyd Young, who before her marriage was Miss Beulah Kendall and who grew to young womanhood in this city. She passed away July 11 at her home in Pierre, South Dakota, but no particulars as yet of her death have been received.

David S. Allen, who lived in Hopkins for many years and was employed as tank man by the Burlington railroad, died at Ellensburg, Washington, July 2, 1921. He was born April 27, 1845 and at the time of his death was 76 years, 2 months and 5 days of age. Of late years he made his home with a daughter, Mrs. George Craig. His death was caused by a complication of heart and kidney trouble. He was a member of Xenia Lodge, No. 50, A. F. and A. M. at Hopkins, Mo., and the Masonic Lodge at Ellensburg had charge of the funeral services at the home, after which the body was taken to Seattle for cremation.

Wm. Bram left a bunch of poppies at this office one day last week from seed direct from Flanders Field of France, the seed having been sent him by a company he buys plants and seeds from.

Jim Lewis has decided to attend school at Columbia the coming year and his place in the Bank of Hopkins will be taken by Miss Virginia Goodson.

"Is your bathing suit finished", is now heard about as often as "is it hot enough for you," most of the Pickering girls having the "swimming bug".

The smoke of the threshing machine can be seen in all directions from Hopkins. Wheat is selling around a dollar a bushel and oats is worth around 30c. The best oats we have yet heard of is 35 acres threshed Tuesday by Pistole and Lowrey that made around 60 bushels to the acre and the Gordon boys threshed wheat that averaged around 25 bushels. Rain is badly needed and if we do not get it this week, corn will be badly damaged. There will be no pasture until the fall rains set in.

E. C. Thomas, the man who bought the Frank Meads place just over the Gentry County line, has gone into the berry and melon business on a big scale. He has planted six thousand raspberry plants and has six acres of melons. Also he knows exactly what he is doing and how to do the thing. He came from Wathena, Kan., where they make fruiting and trucking the main business. Thomas has a big field and is alomst the only one in his line to occupy it.

On July 5, Dewey Anderson son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. THE BARNARD BULLETIN

The Bulletin believes in not waiting until a man is dead to speak a good word about him. We have in our town an official who is somewhat aged, but who has one quality that is admirable and is to be found in no other official the town has ever had within recent years. Every morning as regular as the day breaks, Marshall Newt Myrick goes up and down the streets with a basket and a box and gathers the scrapes of loose paper which the people have so thoughtlessly thrown on the streets. And there is one time—just before the morning train—that Barnard is free from all rubbish of that kind on the business streets. Did you ever go across the crossings on a rainy day? Did you notice that Marshall nearly always has the crossing cleaned from mud all the time. If you can find any other small town with cleaner crossings during rainy weather, we should like to have it pointed out. Marshall Myrick is "there and over" for clean streets and crossings.

Two young men from the School of Mines at Rolla, Mo., came to the R. W. Bridges sand pit south of Barnard last week and looked over his sand deposit. They gave as their opinion that the deposit was only a glacial pocket, but that the quality of the sand made it ideal for road and bridge work. There was just enough clay in the sand to make it knit together in road work. The advice of these geologists was that Mr. Bridges open up the pit.

Howard Campbell and Charles Baker left a week ago Wednesday for Colorado where they will spend the remaining part of the summer. They went to Yuma. George Baker and wife are planning on a motor trip to Colorado this fall and it is probable that the boys will stay until that time at least.

THE BURLINGTON JUNCTION POST

An important change in the Zarn Mercantile Co. was announced last Saturday. The controlling interest in the firm, and its management has been taken over by five employes and C. B. Zarn, for twenty-eight years a member of the Burlington Junction business fraternity, has all but severed his connection with the firm. Two years ago, due to the ill health of Mr. Zarn, the active management of the business was turned over to the corps of efficient assistants which Mr. Zarn had developed and since that time the business has been conducted by Miss Lulu McKnight, Miss Mary Barber, Miss Weltha, Staples, R. J. Zarn and W. R. Miller.

These people with the exception of R. J. Zarn and with the addition of Fred Fleming, have taken over the controlling interest and management of the store, which in the future is to be known as the Junction Mercantile Co. The firm is to be incorporated, and all stockholders will be directors. Accoridng to present plans the officials will be Miss Lulu McKnight, president; Miss Mary Barber, secretary; and Miss Weltha Staples, treasurer.

R. J. Zarn, who has been in charge of the grocery department for some time, has had considerable trouble with his eyes during the past few months and has been advised by his physicians not to enter into any business again for at least a year. He and Mrs. Zarn will go to California this fall with his parents, and "Dick" will take things easy for a while in an effort to give his eyes their needed rest.

Tuesday U. S. Reavis enjoyed a holiday. "Van" says he had plenty of work to be done at home but that he had been promising himself for some time that he wouldn't work on July 12. The reason for the observation was that he passed his 51st milestone that day and felt that he was entitled to a holiday.

According he hitched up the jitney and with Mrs. Reavis and daughter, Fern, spent the day on the banks of the Nodaway. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Reavis of Baltimore, Maryland and Mrs. Howard Kaufman and children.

THE ELMO REGISTER

Today, Wednesday, July 13th, is the thirty eighth anniversary of the great storm that swept this country as with a besome of destruction. Crops were destroyed house wrecked, property destroyed to the value of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The storm was not very wide spread, but the effects of it was felt in the part of the country for many years.

There is some talk of making some improvement in the Elmo stock yards and they need it bad enough. As Yapie says "we have neither shade nor water", and both are needed.

Some sheds for the stock, and facilities for watering are the improvements most needed. The Farmers Shipping Association are back of the proposition.

E. C. McCumber was fishing here in Mill Creek several days ago, and caught a big channel cat two to three feet long that broke his line, and got away with hook and three or four feet of line. Mac says it was the biggest fish he has seen in the creek this season.

It was the first time these young ladies had met, and when they bade each other goodbye, it was with the hope that their next meeting would be in China.

The ice plant has been seriously crippled the last few days on account of a shortage of water. After having tried several wells near the plant, which failed to supply enough water to run the plant at full capacity, the company is now digging out an old well back of the E. C. McMulin residence which was used a number of years ago to supply water for a mill that stood where the residence not stands. As the plant could only run on part time, on the present supply of water, they have shipped a car of ice from St. Joseph to supply their customers until the plant can get running to full capacity again.

A number of relatives and friends met at the home of Joe Shull last Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Patton of Fowler, Idaho. At noon they went to the grove at Liberty school with well filled baskets, and enjoyed a picnic dinner.

The afternoon was enjoyable spent in meeting old friends and talking of old times, as Mr. and Mrs. Patton were formerly Nodaway county residents. Mrs. Palton taught for a number of years in and around Skidmore before going to Idaho.

There were 61 present.

It is understood that the Leonard Players were so favorably impressed with the play presented by the Rebekah lodge the evening of the 4th that they have invited the Rebekahs to go to Burlington Junction and present the play there on their opening night.

THE CLEAMONT NEWS

The School Board met last Saturday evening and completed hiring the teachers for next year. The following is the list:

Supt.—Leslie G. Somerville.
Principal—Miss St. Clair.
High School—Mrs. Rhodes.
Grammar Dept.—Miss Groom.
Intermediate—Miss Brandt.
Primary—Miss Larmer.

W. A. Power and son visited over Sunday with Prof. Somerville and family. Mr Power has secured the Superintendency of the Quitman consolidated schools for the coming year.

Chester Bancroft and family left yesterday morning for Palisade, Colo. where they will make their home for the present.

Lewis Wallace, son of Duffy Wallace had quite an accident last Monday. He was running a mowing machine and his team became frightened and ran away, throwing him off and breaking the thumb of his right hand.

Last Saturday morning we visited the Clary elevator, where we found them busy as bees loading a car of wheat also taking in wheat from the two threshing machines that are running in this vicinity. Mr. Clary informed us that he had up to that time contracted for about 11 car loads of wheat.

Just as we were starting to leave Guy informed us that he was just starting out to visit the threshing machine, one of which was at work on his farm, also to go over to his farm and see that everything was all right, and invited us to accompany him, which invitation we accepted.

We first went to the Rogers farm north of town, where we found Fred Humphrey and his threshing crew at work for Joe Rogers, and they told us the wheat was turning out close to bushels to the acre. From here we went west to the Clary farm where we found Tom Noe and his crew at work threshing for Guy. Guy informed us that he has 155 acres of wheat, the greater part of which was threshed and that up to the present time the average was 27 bushels per acre. He also has 18 acres of volunteer wheat besides the 155 acres, which is also pretty good. From here he took us around over the farm, and he has oats, alfalfa, millet and timothy, all in process of harvest. He took us to one field of alfalfa that is ready to cut that is sure fine. He then took us around through his fields of corn, which are all laid by and give promise now of an abundance yield. To wind up with he took us to what he calls the "brag corn." This is a field that Dick Broyles is farming, and it sure is a brag piece of corn, and if we get a favorable season from now on it will undoubtedly make 80 or more bushels to the acre.

MRS. OVA CLAYTON INJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT TUESDAY

Mrs. Ova Clayton, while driving a Ford Sedan, was badly bruised and severely cut on the hip when the car overturned and fell into a 14-foot ditch eight miles east of Guilford Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Clayton was rendered unconscious. When she ercovered, she released herself from the wreck and crawled through the winshield and walked a quarter of a mile to the home of Homer Thompson for aid. Medical aid was at once called and at this time she is reported to be getting along nicely.

A cluvert was in the process of construction at the place where the accident occurred and a pile of sand caused the car to begin to skid and overturn into the ditch. In the opinion of those who got the car out if it had been an open car she would have been killed. She was driving the car and was alone when the accident happened.—The Barnard Bulletin.

Washington from the Side Lines

Washington, July 14. (Capital News Service).—Senators Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts and Lee S. Overman of North Carolina hold the long service records for continuous membership in the United States Senate, as shown by the Congressional Record. They have each served 28 years. Senator Francis E. Warren of Wyoming, father-in-law of General Pershing has served in all 29 years, but not continuously, and Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota 26 years Other holding long service records are Senators Penrose, Pennsylvania, who is just beginnig his sixth consecutive term; Simmons, North Carolina; Culberson, Texas; McCumber, North Dakota; and Dillingham, New Hampshire; all of whom have served more than 20 years. Senator Smoot of Utah has served 19 years and Senator Brandagee of Connecticut, 16.

Another fiend for figures, in which the National Capital abounds, has estimated that it costs the government $40,000 under the present vocational education plan to train a soldier. This estimate has caused comment to the effect that while no American worthy of the name would begrudge a cent of this sum per soldier if this much be needed and is actually spent in providing the training, that the introduction of some of the efficiency taught the veterans into the handling of the appropriation for this purpose might leave more for the veterans. This comment is not meant, however, to reflect upon the sincerity of those engaged in the great task of vocational instruction, but only as calling attention to possible improvement if the figure fiend's estimate is a correct one.

Due to the industry of a delver who recently went through old records in the office of the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, the Washington public is being regaled with stories of the time when public whipping, ducking in the ristoric Potomac, and fines of 1,000 pounds of tobacco were common in the capital of the nation. The old courthouse, according to these records, now replaced by a handsome and modern one, was dedicated with ceremonies which included the placing of ten stripes on a woman and before an audience made up among others of notables of that day.

The motion-picture industry is again being faced by possible legislative restrictions of a character to seriously affect the industry. While legislation in Congress proposing censorship and other restrictions not only on motion picture houses, but on the so-called legitimate theatres as well, is to the fore. those who oppose such legislation have established headquarters in Washington and are preparing to make a nation-wide fight against it. The indications are now, however, that the present special session of Congress will see no legislation of this character reach the stage where it would go to the President for action by him.

Cost of Mining Coal

The cost of producing a ton of hard coal is from two and a half to three times as great as for mining a ton of bituminous coal because the beds are deeper, thinner and generally inclined at steeper angles than those of the soft coal.

Hothouse cucumbers still outnumber the field grown varietis, although the latter have started coming into the local markets from Florida and Louisiana.

EVERSOLE AGAIN WINS IN MEN'S SINGLES TOURNEY

Plays Either Bebout or Williams In Final Game Monday—Hull Eliminated

Ralph Eversole defeated Clifford Hull in the first round of the semi-finals in the men's singles at the college yesterday afternoon, 9-7 6-2. The first set was about an even match, but in the second, Eversole won three straight games before Hull rallied and took the next game. Eversole then took two more. Hull took one and then lost the final game, the set and match.

By winning this match Eversole becomes one of the finalists. He will play either Bebout or Williams in the deciding match Moday.

O. C. Williams won from Clifton Smith in the second round yesterday morning. The score was 6-4 9-7. The feature of this match was the unusual number of deuce games. The deciding game in the first set went to deuce twenty-three times before it was won by Williams. Smith played a driving game, while Williams depended largely on his cut stroke.

Williams plays Bebout this afternoon to see who will be matched against Eversole in the finals.

TARKIO COLLEGE IGNORES MARYVILLE INSTITUTION

Atchison County School Arouses Ire of President Richardson by Inaccurate Advertising

Tarkio College is making a wide statement when it says in advertisements in Atchison County papers that it is the only standard college withing 125 miles, says President Ira Richardson of the State Teachers' College here.

The advertisements, directed to Atchison County parents, urge Tarkio College as the most economical school for their sons and daughters, because the next-nearest standard college is 125 miles away. Besides the Maryville State Teachers' College, says President Richardson, there are two other standard colleges within that radius. One is Missouri Wesleyan College at Cameron, 100 miles from Tarkio, and the other is Park College at Parkville, 108 miles from Tarkio.

Maryville not only has a standard college, President Richardson maintains, but it offers a much wider range of studies than Tarkio College. It has been regarded in the past as a professional school, but it now offers courses, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, as well as Bachelor of Science in Education. Both schools are members of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

CAPPER DEOUNCES FOUR DOLLAR STEAK

SOMETHING RADICALLY WRONG SAYS KANSAS SENATOR

NEED FAIR MARKETING

Speech Shows Drop in Value of Farm Products and Need of Corrective Legislation.

Speaking in the Senate on Packer regulation, Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas, made the following speech.

"Mr. President, it is obvious that it is no fault of the producer that the consumer is still charged extortionate prices for most of what he buys. All farmers have suffered losses during the past year—thousands have gone bankrupt. I cite a single case that might be duplicated a thousand times. The next time anyone pays a Washington dinner check, with his steak costing him anywhere from $2 to $4 a pound, let him reflect on the case of this Nebraska farmer. Last October Charles Hunter, an Invale cattleman, shipped to his feed lots 102 head of beef steers, which cost him $10,810 delivered in his lots, or 10 1-2 cents a pound. He sold them seven months later on the Chicago market for $10.684 or 7 1-2 cents a pound, a loss of three cents a pound—besides having an $892 freight bill for shipping the cattle to Chicago.

"In other words, Mr. Hunter bought 102,000 pounds of live steers for $10,810 and sold 142,800 pounds of beef on the hoof—just 40,800 more pounds of beef than he bought for $10,684, taking a loss of $126, a loss of seven months' work, a loss of all the alfalfa and corn he fed these steers, and a loss of seven months' interest on $10,810—a rather heavy penalty for having contributed more than 40,000 pounds of additional beef to feed his fellow countrymen.

"Naturally, when stockmen lose so much money in raising feeding, and shipping meat animals, there are going to be fewer such animals produced, and eventually meat is likely to become scarcer and dearer for strictly legitimate reasons. This time next year steaks in Washington may be costing $8 a pound instead of $4, and quite possibly the producer will not be receiving satisfactory return even for his labor and his feed and for interest on his investment.

"A farmer feeds a hog 7 1-2 bushels of corn to make 100 pounds of pork, but he pays 1 1-2 bushels of corn for 1 pound of bacon.

"For 5 pounds of wool, enough to make a "genuine" all-wool suit, a farmer is now glad to get $1, but to buy such a suit of clothes costs him 500 pounds of wool.

"Last year a good pair of shoes could be bought with one cowhide. Today it takes 5 cowhides to get the shoes.

"To buy his wife a pair of $10 shoes a Kansas farmer recently sold 25 bushels of corn for $.50 and a big cowhide for $2. Then he had to pay 50 cents to boot to close the transaction.

"If on a parity with the present price of corn, Mr. Rockefeller would sell gasoline for 8 cents a gallon instead of 24, the Coal Trust would sell a ton of coal for $8 instead of $18, the clothier a $60 suit of clothes for $18, the shoe dealer's $10 shoe for $3, the hatter a $5 hat for $2, and the Washington market man would sell bacon at pre war prices instead of at past war prices, and American agriculture would not to-day be in need of the credit pulmotor. Corn should be and is worth more if these things are worth what is asked for them.

"Last year when corn was $1.50 a bushel a farmer could get 5 gallons of gasoline for a single bushel, Today at the farm price, that bushel of corn only buys a little less than 2 gallons of gasoline.

"Last year 6 bushels of corn would buy a ton of soft coal. To-day that ton of coal costs 35 bushels of corn.

"Last year 40 bushels of corn would purchase a $60 suit of clothes. To-day it would take 125 bushels of corn to buy that suit. Yet had clothing been reduced in price proportionately with corn, $60 suits of clothes would not take 36 bushels.

"Last year bushel of corn would buy 3 pounds of coffee. To-day it will buy only a little more than 1 pound.

"Last year 2 1-2 bushels of corn would purchase 2 1-2 bushels of corn flour. To-day it takes 5 1-2 bushels.

And so it goes, up and down the line. Whether prices rise or fall, the farmer gets the worst of it.

"What is it going to profit us to keep knocking the farm down? How are we going to be clothed and fed when we finnaly have knocked him out completely?

"The biggest problem, Mr. President, that confronts the Congress is to devise a plan by which through fair marketing conditions, an extinction of profiteering, a lowering of freight rates, and a rehabilitation of our foreign and domestic markets, the producer may receive a fair return without the consumer being brutally victimized by the conscienceless purveyor of bread, meat and other food products. We should see also, that in the future adequate credit is provided for farmers through long-time and short-time loans, adapted fairly and practically to the peculiar conditions of the farming business, to afford farmers the same credit accomodations now afford other lines of business and that they may not be compelled to dump their products on a glutted or demoralized market.

"Our people, I think are beginning to see that we must put our former $8,000,000,000, farming industry on an equal footing with the organized world of business and industry or be prepared to suffer more and more from evil times when we should be enjoying good times. So on the whole the situation now seems more hopeful and encouraging.

"All history emphasizes that the downfall of every bygone civilization and nation was preceded by the break down of its agriculture. Eventually we pay and pay heavily for every shortsighted or wrong policy toward agriculture that we adopt as well as for every farsighted agricultural policy we fail to adopt. This inevitably reacts on general business and national welfare.

"To attain a newer and stronger national stability rests on a general and genuine prosperity for all the people, the farmers of the land must have a square deal. That is all I ask. I ask it for them in behalf of all."

Miss Katherine Wagner who has been spending a two weeks' visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Wagner, northwest of Maryville returned yesterday to Louisiana, Mo. where she is assistant to Dr. Druey Goodman. Miss Wagner's sister, Miss Elizabeth Wagner also of Louisiana, Mo., is spending a four weeks' vacation with her mother and family.

SCHOOLS BENEFIT FROM THE PUBLIC'S REACTION

Sentiment for Adequate Support Grows with Realization of Money Wasted on Knick-Knacks

Washington, July 15.—(Capital News Service).—Wide publication of the fact that the United States spends dollars for cosmetics, perfumes, tobacco, gum and other luxuries to cents for education seems to have had the effect of arousing the public to the need of generous support to institutions of learning. The smaller colleges, particularly, are being given attention through the judicious distribution of sums approximating $100,000,000 and donated to the cause of higher education. The Towner-Sterling Department of Education bill, therefore, which authorizes an appropriation of $100,000,000 would, if enacted into law, call for the expenditure through federal government channels of a sum so small by comparison with that spent for non-essentials as to stamp it as negiligible, say supporters of the bill.

The Towner-Sterling measure would, it is pointed out, make it possible to supplement sums raised and appropriated by states and expended for the purpose of combating illiteracy, to educate the immigrant, promote public school and, particularly, rural school education, encourage physical education through instruction as to the general health, sanitation and recreation.

It would also aid in the preparation and supply of teachers for the public schools and, in fostering all of these activities, promote a real democracy in this country.

W. L. Harding, former governor of Iowa, in a recent address in Mississippi, pointed out that many sections in his state had graduated from two horse and a plow into four or five plows and a gasoline tractor, but with the same old-time schoolhouse at the cross roads. When this fact was brought home to the farming communities, he added, the friends of education got busy, with the result that there was constructed a consolidated school for every day in the year In other states, according to information reaching government authorities in Washington, a similar response to the demands for more and better public schools is being made, schools which would benefit in their operation materially under a federal department of education bill.

NAVY ENLISTMENTS OPEN NOW ONLY FOR FORMER SAILORS

The Navy Department has directed that all first enlisements in the United States Navy be discontinued until further orders.

Former service men of the regular Navy will be given the opportunity to reenlist for the time being, but it is possible that the reenlistment of men who have been out of service more than four months will also be discontinued in the near future. although no definite announcement has been made of this possibility.

Since April 1 the St. Louis office has enlisted 413 men in various ratings out of a list of applicants which totalled over 1500.

War Records Nearly Completed

Washington, July 15. (Capital News Service).—The work of assembling and filing of those records of the world war and its participants, which come under the supervision of The Adjutant General of the Army, is fast approaching completion. If it were not for the special searches and additional efforts required by emergencies such as the preparation of the draft deserters' list, the work of The Adjutant General's office would be current.

Iceberg lettuce is being shipped from Washington. It is expensive, much more expjensive than the home grown varites, but it is so sweet and crisp that the demand continues good.

A few currants have arrived from Tennessee, Mississippi is shipping blueberries and blackberries.

Next Week At the Movies

AT THE ELECTRIC

The feature attraction for Monday and Tuesday will be Alice Brady in, "The Land of Hope." The play presents Miss Brady in the role of a Polish immigrant girl, who, with a group of humble folks from her native village, seeks her fortune in America. The girl Marya, and her lover, Sascha, both quaint, wisful, appealing figures of repressed youth and timid hope, are the oddest and most interesting pair of lovers who have been seen on the screen in some time.

The pathetic youngsters think all their poverty and hardships will be at an end, once they reach America. But alas for youthful optimism and ignorance, they have many difficulties and disillusionments before them. They learn that the Statue of Liberty is not made of solid gold, and that the bustling new world neither needs nor heeds them. In the swift currents of life, in which they find themselves struggling they are soon swept apart and almost submerged.

"Coincidence," a lively story of youthful mishaps, will be the feature attraction Wednesday. This production, which is released by Metro, is heralded as one of the most entertaining pictures in a long time, and the patrons are therefore in line for something of a treat in the way of entertainment.

With Robert Harron and June Walker in the principal roles, "Coincidence" romps through its entire length "on high", with never a pause in the fast pace of hilarious fun making and breathless suspense. Coincidence after coincidence piles up on the characters in the play in a way that speeds up the pulse and tickles the floating ribs.

Briefly, the story is of Billy Jenks, who comes to New York and obtains employment in a Fifth Avenue department store. Money he is counting blows out upon the street, where it falls at the feet of a pretty young girl, whom he afterward falls in love with. But the mishaps that befall them both are many and amusing before the epidemic of coincidences finally come to an end.

The feature picture for Thursday and Friday will be, "Don't Call Me Little Girl," with Mary Miles Minter playing the leading role. It is a picture bubbling over with clean amusing humor. The young star is well cast in the role of "Jerry" the incorrigible tom-boy whose juggling of three romances, her own, her aunt's and her mother's forms a delicious hodge-podge of thoroughly enjoyable fun. Playing the leading role opposite Miss Minter is Jerome Patrick, a good looking leading man, who has appeared so successfully in such pictures as, "The Furnace" and "Her First Elopement."

"A Shocking Night," the Universal feature comedy starring Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran, will be shown Saturday night.

The story concerns a young businessman whose fortune flits away at the worst possible time; just when he is trying to make an impression on an "angel" who may back him in future deals. To add to the grief, the servants walk out.

With affairs becoming more complicated every minute owing to the expected arrival of the prospective backer, a pal of the host's and his financee arrive for a visit. The foursome change about. The host and his wife impersonate the butler and the maid, while the pal and his girl play at being host.

At bedtime the story is involved in such a tangle of humorous situations that the spectators last night divided forces. Certain elderly gentlemen sat forward in their seats expectantly while the ladies appeared a bit apprehensive, but all laughed heartily.

The climax, however, took an unexpected turn and the laughter was spontaneous and continued.

AT THE EMPIRE

"The Sea Wolf" Jack London's rugged story of adventure, has been made into a stirring photoplay will be shown Monday and Tuesday. Spectacular scenes, such as the ramming of a ferryboat by a whaling schooner in a fog in San Francisco Bay, the beaching of the schooner in a gale, and the violent battles between "Wolf" and his crew stand out with extreme vividness.

On the other hand, a delightful love story is blended into this atmosphere of violence. The character of "Wolf" Larsen, the brutal sea captain, who rules with an iron hand, but who is a deep student of philisophy and reader of poetry, is delineated on the screen with even greater force than it was on the printed page. The story, in brief, concerns a rich idler, and a pretty girl who were picked up by "Wolf" after a disaster at esa and their strange adventures while under his domination.

Noah Berry gives an excellent performance as "Wolf". Tom Forman, and Mabel Julienne Scott do good work also, and Raymond Hatton draws laughter as the sad-eyed "Sea Cook".

"Not Guilty", the photoplay which is coming on Wednesday and Thursday is interesting because many have read Harold MacGrath's thrilling novel, "Parrot & Company," from which it is addapted.

The feature is released through the Associated First National Pictures Inc., and is a Sidney A. Franklin production presented by Albert A. Kaufman.

The plot is an unusual one and involves twin brothers who love the same woman and who, strange to relate, are both loved by her. One of the brothers commits a crime, turns out to be a murderer and his twin changes identity with the guilty brother. Then events follow in rapid sequence. The innocent brother self-exiled goes to India, the land of "brilliant days and purple nights" where the love, the life, the lure of the tropical east soothe the hopes and the hearts of the civilized west.

Then by coincidence the girl visits India. But the path of true love which never did run true, winds through a veritable jungle of tense situations to an amazing climax.

Screen farce of an hilarious and rapid-fire order is dispensed by Wallace Reid in his new picture, "Sick Abed", which will be shown Friday and Saturday.

As a lively young chap who is feigning illnes sin order not to appear as a witness at his friend's divorce hearing, the star makes probably the breeziest "invalid" who was ever confined to a cot. The fact that he himself has had some ticklish dealings with the woman in the case makes the hero all the more anxious to make his camouflaged sickness ring true. However, the pretty nurse who is assigned to him almost spoils his plans but everyting turns out merrily in the end.

Wallace Reid is at his best in 100 per cent comedy like "Sick Abed" He is handsome and good-natured and his work always exhibits good taste. In these hectic times he is more than ever a joy-bringing asset. Bebe Daniels was never prettier than in her role of the nurse who falls in love with her patient. John Stepling and Winifred Greenwood are also prominent in the cast.

Sam Wood directed the picture, which wa sadapted from the popular stage farce of the same name and is a Paramount Artcraft release.

GIVES UP TO "OTHER WOMAN" FOR SAKE OF HER CHILDREN

Chicago, July 15.—Mother love won out over the love of a wife for her husband in one of the strangest "eternal triangles" ever revealed in the Chicago courts.

Mrs. Lynn N. Hitchcock "gave her husband away to the "other woman" that her children might not suffer from a faithless father. She was granted a divorce here with custody of her two children—John, eight and Evelyn, seven—and $100 alimony a month. Hitchcock will marry the "other woman."

Mrs. Hitchcock blamed her marital troubles on the fact that her husband was a "traveling salesman."

"I gave up my husband for my children," she explained. The mother love was greater than my love for my husband. The other woman may have him now.

"If I had insisted on living with him he might have starved me and my children. I wouldn't want them to live under the stain of a faithless father.

"He was always loving and dutiful until he went on the road as a travelling salesman. Then his whole attitude changed. He met this other woman—Myrtle, he called her—on one of his trips. She was his affinity, I suppose.

"It was hard at first to decide. It seemed impossible to give him up. I knew a lot of women would have wanted to punish him for wasting my love. But I couldn't do that for the love of my children was greater than that. There is no love greater than mother love."

Education Program in Japan

Washington, July 15.—(Capital News Service).—Intimations from high sources at Tokio indicate that in 1922 Japan will have expanded its school equipment and teaching staff so that the term of compulsory education of all her children and youth may be extended two years. It will involve, so it is estimated, not less than 15,000,000 yen additional expenditure yearly, but the government is convinced that the disclosure of the war at home and abroad have made it imperative that changes in the method and, to some extent in the theory, of popular education must be altered.

YOUNG GIRL FINDS RELIEF

Wants to Tell Other Girls All About It

Evansville, Ind.—"I am eighteen years old and have been bothered for several months with irregular periods. Every month my back would ache and I always had a cold and felt drowsy and sleepy. I work in a millinery shop and I went to work every day, but felt stupid and would have such cramps. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and had heard several women talk of it, so mother got me some. This Vegetable Compound is wonderful and it helped me very much, so that during my periods I am not now sick or drowsy. I have told many girls about your medicine and would be glad to help anyone who is troubled with similar ailments. You may use my testimonial as you like."—STELLA LINXWILER, 6 Second St., Evansville, Indiana.

Some girls lead lives of luxury, while others toil for their livelihood, but all are subject to the same physical laws and suffer in proportion to their violation. When such symptoms develop as irregularities, headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations and "the blues," girls should profit by Miss Linxwiler's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.
